

VT. Lt. Governor Dave Zuckerman, a labor-backed Bernie ally, is coming to Richmond on Sept. 10...

Labor for Bernie and Our Revolution scored a big victory last November when one of the strongest pro-worker voices in the Vermont state legislature beat a conservative Republican to become Lieutenant Governor of Vermont.

Dave Zuckerman (pictured with Bernie above) is a longtime leader of the labor-backed Vermont Progressive Party (VPP), the nation's most successful third party. David is the only progressive independent holding statewide office in state government anywhere in the country.

Bay Area union activists can meet David and find out more about the VPP and Our Revolution in Vermont at a house party hosted by CWA NewsGuild members Steve Early and Suzanne Gordon:

Sunday, Sept. 10, 2-5 PM - 747 Lobos Avenue, Richmond, CA. 94801

Other speakers will include former Richmond mayor Gayle McLaughlin, a progressive independent candidate for Lt. Gov. of California. Beer, wine, and refreshments will be served. The hat will be passed to aid Gayle's campaign!
